

“Courageous Love” OLA Women’s Retreat March 23-25, 2012

Guest Speaker Eileen Love

Eileen Love is a writer, teacher, and facilitator/trainer at Endow (Educating on the Nature and Dignity of Women), an educational program of prayer and study for Catholic women. Eileen travels around the country speaking to groups about the “new feminism” of John Paul II and training women to lead their own Endow study groups. Prior to joining Endow, Eileen worked as a parish Director of Religious Education and she was a featured columnist in the Denver Catholic Register from 1994-2000. She holds certification as a master catechist, is a 1994 graduate of the Catholic Biblical School, and has her Master’s Degree in Theological Studies. Eileen and her husband, Mike are the blessed and proud parents of 4 young men.

Music & Worship Leader Kelly Pease

Kelly Pease, Louisiana native, has been praying through music since the age of 14. At first she thought the music God was giving her was simply to heal from the losses she experienced early in life, including the divorce of her parents and the untimely death of her father. But over time, God revealed to her that the music He was pouring through her was for others as well. Now at the age of 22, Kelly shares her music and testimony in churches and conferences across the country. Her songs reflect a true telling of the ups and downs of walking with Christ, including the major themes of God’s consistency in an inconsistent world and the call for God’s church to be one. “What I believe God has put on my heart, is a call for unity in the church” Kelly says. Kelly signed a recording contract with Beach St./Reunion Records and had her debut album released worldwide in the Spring of 2008.
